

Austin Interpreters for the Deaf (AID) & Austin Community College (ACC) proudly present

Ethical Decision-Making: It's All About Me

Presented by Holly Warren-Norman

When: Saturday, September 26, 2009

Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Where: Austin Community College – Eastview Campus
Building 8000, Room 8111
3401 Webberville Road
Austin, TX 78702

Workshop Description:

The workshop focuses on what you bring to the interpreting assignment. What values, cultural orientation, ethical & intellectual maturity level, soft skills, communication patterns and boundaries help you make your decisions? What happens when values conflict with ethics? How do others view interpreters when a bad decision is made? The workshop also celebrates the EXEMPLARY work of and decisions made by interpreters. It is the first of three workshops on ethical decision-making and is designed for all interpreters. The workshop includes with a one-hour lunch break. Participants should bring $10 to order lunch from Jason's Deli, or bring lunch on your own. For further assistance, contact AID President-Elect Roberto Sandoval at rsandov3@austincc.edu.

Cost: $35.00 for 6 Hour Workshop (check all that apply)

Discounts: -$ 5.00 AID Member

Amount Enclosed: $ _____ Make checks payable to: AID

Accommodations Needed:

Sign Language Interpreter Other _____

Participant Name: _____

Email: _____

Register soon! Only 30 Seats available!

BEI & RID CEUs Approved

If this workshop is cancelled prior to the schedule date of 9/26/2009, participants will receive a full refund.

Print this form and send registration to: AID PO BOX 684694 Austin, TX 78768

TSID is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for Continuing Education Activities.

