The Lillian Beard Deaf Connection Center

Lillian Beard Deaf Connection Center is a non-profit organization that provides various services to the Deaf community in Greater Houston area. LBDCC offers more Deaf-orient environment for those who need deaf-friendly services.

Who is Lillian Beard?

The Lillian Beard Deaf Connection Center (LBDCC) was named in honor of Lillian Beard who was one of the first interpreters for the Deaf community, founding Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, as well as founding the deaf church over 85 years ago. That church evolved into Woodhaven Baptist Deaf Church. Through the years, Miss Lillian has ministered and interpreted to thousands of deaf people around the world, assisted in starting several local and national deaf organizations, trained, and mentored hundred of interpreters
