

ETHICS & DECISION MAKING CIRCLES FOUNDATION AND PRACTICE WORKSHOP

Target Audience: Certified Interpreters and Second-Year Interpreting Students

Workshop participants, through guided self-exploration, lecture, and large and small group discussion, will take a closer look at ethical decision making through a lens of conflict theory and dispute resolution. Grievances filed against interpreters within the RID Ethical Practices System will be the focus in the Friday evening presentation.

Making ethical decisions by incorporating personal and professional values, Codes of Professional Conduct and conflict resolution practices, including Circle Processes will be examined in Saturday's workshop.
