

INTRODUCTION TO LEGAL INTERPRETING WORKSHOP

Target Audience: All levels of interpreters with preference to interpreters who are qualified to interpret in court.

This workshop will cover various topics within the legal/courtroom setting, including but not limited to: the four roles of legal interpreters with an example case and where interpreters may be used in each of the segments of a case, the difference between Civil and Criminal Court, and the Code of Conduct for interpreters working in courts. This course is a pre-requisite for legal interpreting workshops in a series taught by this presenter.

Saturday, February 22, 2014

8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Nail Technical Center (NTC), Rooms 120A & 120B

Registration Fees

Workshop	Students	Interpreters
Saturday	$25	$50
Both Days	$30	$70

This Workshop Earns .3 CEUs

MAIL PAYMENT TO:

SAN ANTONIO COLLEGE

Dept. of American Sign Language & Interpreter Training

1300 San Pedro Avenue, NTC 114

San Antonio, TX 78212-4299

Telephone: (210) 486-1106

(Requests for Special Accommodations Must be Received No Later than 3 Days Prior to the Workshop.)

KERI RICHARDSON,

NAD V, CI/CT, SC: L, TCDHH Level V & Court

Keri has specialized in legal interpreting for the last 15 years. Six of those years were devoted to working exclusively for the Oregon Judicial Department as a court interpreter, trainer and mentor. She has presented locally and nationally on many topics however legal is what she loves. She is happy to be back in Texas and currently works at UTHSCSA as a Designated Interpreter for a deaf physician.

Co-sponsored By:
RIVER CITY INTERPRETERS

